Attorneys for Plaintiffs

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Shirley Lindsay,

Plaintiff,

v.

Bolo Corporation, a California
Corporation;
Thrifty Payless, Inc., a California
Corporation; and Does 1-10,

Defendants.

Case No.

Complaint For Damages And Injunctive Relief For Violations
Of: American's With Disabilities
Act; Unruh Civil Rights Act

Plaintiff Shirley Lindsay complains of Defendants Bolo Corporation, a California Corporation; Thrifty Payless, Inc., a California Corporation; and Does 1-10 ("Defendants") and alleges as follows:

PARTIES:

1. Plaintiff is a California resident with physical disabilities. She suffers from arthritis (osteoarthritis of multiple joints; spinal stenosis of the lumbar spine; and essential hypertension) of her hands, knees, and hips. She uses both a cane and wheelchair for mobility.

1 2. Defendant Bolo Corporation owned the real property located at or about 2 1433 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles, California, in November 2016.

3 3. Defendant Bolo Corporation owns the real property located at or about 4 1433 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles, California, currently.

5 4. Defendant Thrifty Payless, Inc. owned the Rite-Aid store located at or 6 about 1433 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles, California, in November 2016.

7 5. Defendant Thrifty Payless, Inc. owns the Rite-Aid store ("Store")
8 located at or about 1433 Glendale Blvd., Los Angeles, California, currently.

9 6. Plaintiff does not know the true names of Defendants, their business 10 capacities, their ownership connection to the property and business, or their 11 relative responsibilities in causing the access violations herein complained of, 12 and alleges a joint venture and common enterprise by all such Defendants.
13 Plaintiff is informed and believes that each of the Defendants herein, 14 including Does 1 through 10, inclusive, is responsible in some capacity for the 15 events herein alleged, or is a necessary party for obtaining appropriate relief.
16 Plaintiff will seek leave to amend when the true names, capacities,
17 connections, and responsibilities of the Defendants and Does 1 through 10,
18 inclusive, are ascertained.

19
20 JURISDICTION & VENUE:

21 7. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 22 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343(a)(3) & (a)(4) for violations of the Americans with 23 Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.

24 8. Pursuant to supplemental jurisdiction, an attendant and related cause 25 of action, arising from the same nucleus of operative facts and arising out of 26 the same transactions, is also brought under California's Unruh Civil Rights
27 Act, which act expressly incorporates the Americans with Disabilities Act.

28 9. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and is

1 founded on the fact that the real property which is the subject of this action is 2 located in this district and that Plaintiff's cause of action arose in this district.

4 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS:

5 10. The Plaintiff went to the Store in November 2016 to shop.

6 11. The Store is a facility open to the public, a place of public
7 accommodation, and a business establishment.

8 12. Parking spaces are one of the facilities, privileges and advantages
9 offered by defendants to patrons of the Store.

10 13. Unfortunately, there was an insufficient number of accessible parking
11 spaces in the parking lot on the day of plaintiff's November 2016 visit. There 12 are approximately 86 parking spaces but only two spaces are reserved for 13 persons with disabilities.

14 14. On the day of plaintiff's visit, these accessible parking spaces were in use 15 by other customers.

16 15. On information and belief, defendants used to have more accessible
17 parking spaces. Unfortunately, the defendants have allowed the parking 18 spaces to fade beyond recognition or they have been paved over it.

19 16. Defendants do not maintain their parking lot and have no plan or policy 20 in place to maintain their parking spaces reserved for persons with disabilities.

21 17. These barriers caused Plaintiff difficulty and frustration.

22 18. Additionally, and even though plaintiff did not confront the barrier, the 23 ice cream transaction counter is 55 inches in height. There is no lowered, 36
24 inch portion of counter for use by persons in wheelchairs.

25 19. Plaintiff would like to return and patronize the Store but will be deterred 26 from visiting until the defendants cure the violations.

27 20. The defendants have failed to maintain in working and useable 28 conditions those features required to provide ready access to persons with 1 disabilities.

2 21. The violations identified above are easily removed without much
3 difficulty or expense. They are the types of barriers identified by the 4 Department of Justice as presumably readily achievable to remove and, in fact,
5 these barriers are readily achievable to remove. Moreover, there are numerous 6 alternative accommodations that could be made to provide a greater level of 7 access if complete removal were not achievable.

8 22. For example, there are numerous paint/stripe companies that will come 9 and stripe parking stalls and access aisles and install proper signage on rapid 10 notice, with very modest expense, sometimes as low as $300 in fully 11 compliance with federal and state access standards.

12 23. Plaintiff is and has been deterred from returning and patronizing the 13 Store because of her knowledge of the illegal barriers that exist. Plaintiff will, 14 nonetheless, return to assess ongoing compliance with the ADA and will 15 return to patronize the Store as a customer once the barriers are removed.

16 24. Given the obvious and blatant violation, the plaintiff alleges, on 17 information and belief, that there are other violations and barriers on the site
18 that relate to her disability. Plaintiff will amend the complaint, to provide 19 proper notice regarding the scope of this lawsuit, once she conducts a site
20 inspection. However, please be on notice that the plaintiff seeks to have all 21 barriers related to her disability remedied. See Doran v. 7-11, 524 F.3d 1034
22 (9th Cir. 2008) (holding that once a plaintiff encounters one barrier at a site, 23 he can sue to have all barriers that relate to his disability removed regardless of 24 whether he personally encountered them).

25 25. Additionally, on information and belief, the plaintiff alleges that the 26 failure to remove these barriers was intentional because: (1) these particular 27 barriers are intuitive and obvious; (2) the defendants exercised control and 28 dominion over the conditions at this location and, therefore, the lack of

1 accessible facilities was not an “accident” because had the defendants
 2 intended any other configuration, they had the means and ability to make the 3 change.

 5 I. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS
 6 WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all
 7 Defendants.) (42 U.S.C. section 12101, et seq.)

8 26. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
 9 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 10 complaint.

11 27. Under the ADA, it is an act of discrimination to fail to ensure that the 12 privileges, advantages, accommodations, facilities, goods and services of any 13 place of public accommodation is offered on a full and equal basis by anyone
 14 who owns, leases, or operates a place of public accommodation. See 42 U.S.C.
 15 § 12182(a). Discrimination is defined, inter alia, as follows:

- 16 a. A failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, 17 or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford
 18 goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 19 accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the 20 accommodation would work a fundamental alteration of those 21 services and facilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).
- 22 b. A failure to remove architectural barriers where such removal is 23 readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). Barriers are 24 defined by reference to the ADAAG, found at 28 C.F.R., Part 36,
 25 Appendix “D.”
- 26 c. A failure to make alterations in such a manner that, to the 27 maximum extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are 28 readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities,

1 including individuals who use wheelchairs or to ensure that, to the 2 maximum extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area and 3 the bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the 4 altered area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals
5 with disabilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2).

6 28. Any business that provides parking spaces must provide a sufficient
7 number of handicap parking spaces. 1991 Standards § 4.1.2(5). 2010
8 Standards § 208. According to the 1991 Standards, if a parking lot has 86
9 spaces, it must have 4 accessible parking spaces. 1991 Standards § 4.1.2(5)(a).
10 Under the 2010 Standards, a parking lot with 86 spaces must have 4 accessible 11 spaces. 2010 Standards § 208.2 and 1 of them must be van accessible. Id. at 12 208.2.4.

13 29. Here, there were just two accessible parking spaces. This is a violation of 14 the law.

15 30. In areas used for transactions where counters have cash registers and 16 are provided for sales or distribution of goods or services to the public, at least 17 one of each type shall have a portion of the counter which is at least 36 inches
18 in length with a maximum height of 36 inches above the floor. 1991 Standards
19 § 7.2(1). Under the 2010 Standards, where the approach to the sales or service 20 counter is a parallel approach, such as in this case, there must be a portion of 21 the sales counter that is no higher than 36 inches above the floor and 36 inches
22 in width and must extend the same depth as the rest of the sales or service
23 counter top. 2010 Standards § 904.4 & 904.4.1.

24 31. Here, no such accessible transaction counter has been provided in 25 violation of the ADA.

26 32. A public accommodation must maintain in operable working condition 27 those features of its facilities and equipment that are required to be readily 28 accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(a).

1 33. Here, the failure to ensure that the accessible facilities were available
2 and ready to be used by the plaintiff is a violation of the law.

3 34. Given its location and options, plaintiff will continue to desire to 4 patronize the Store but she has been and will continue to be discriminated 5 against due to the lack of accessible facilities and, therefore, seeks injunctive 6 relief to remove the barriers.

8 II. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE UNRUH CIVIL
9 RIGHTS ACT (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all Defendants.) (Cal. Civ.
10 Code § 51-53.)

11 35. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
12 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 13 complaint.

14 36. Because the defendants violated the plaintiff's rights under the ADA, 15 they also violated the Unruh Civil Rights Act and are liable for damages. (Cal.
16 Civ. Code § 51(f), 52(a).)

17 37. Because the violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act resulted in difficulty, 18 discomfort or embarrassment for the plaintiff, the defendants are also each 19 responsible for statutory damages, i.e., a civil penalty. (Cal. Civ. Code § 20 55.56(a)-(c).)

21
22 PRAYER:

23 Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that this Court award damages and provide 24 relief as follows:

25 1. For injunctive relief, compelling Defendants to comply with the 26 Americans with Disabilities Act and the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Note: the 27 plaintiff is not invoking section 55 of the California Civil Code and is not 28 seeking injunctive relief under the Disabled Persons Act at all.
